Crowd Pleasing

The Marin Music Chest, which has been awarding music scholarships to students of classical music since 1933, celebrated its 75th anniversary with a gala at the Marin Art & Garden Center in Ross, hosted by president John Rando. The afternoon event included performances by 2008 Marin Music Chest scholarship winners Mayumi Wyrick, Mariko Wyrick, Rieko Tuschida and Toki Migimatsu and past winners Steve Bergman, Mark Jordan and Claudia Colburne Cummings. Also in Marin, neighbors came out for the Corinthian Island block party. Attendees included Sharon Barr, a future Corinthian Yacht Club commodore; Bob and Lani Valentine, who provided their own 2005 vintage cabernet for the party; and even the neighborhood's mailman, who has been delivering in the area for 25 years. In Larkspur, Matt and Carol Painter celebrated a new exhibit by Christin Coy at their Painters Place gallery. At Robert Allen Fine Art in Sausalito, owner Robert Allen held a reception for the new Mari Marks exhibit.
